

I do not think the the "Do Not Call" list is stringent enough! I have registered twice and I am still receiving a good number of calls everyday. I would like to see this law even further strengthened, not weakened. No business or charity or agency should be able to call someone if they register on the list.

Thank you.